Would Have Japanese Send Troops to Europe

Paris, Nov. 29.-Led by former Foreign Minister Stephen Pichon, the Paris press has begun a campaign to permit Japan to fulfill her desire to send troops to Europe to fight Germany.

Pichon says there is no time to lose; the terms of Japan's intervention in the European battles should be settled immediately. She is a civilized nation fighting in behalf of oppressed peoples, and the ailies are justified in using all the forces at their disposal in expelling the prince, but admits that he miscalculated Germans from France and Belgium.
